

2024 Series Schedule

Open to Teaching Artists, Artists, Educators, and Arts Administrators of all skill levels.

To register, email allison@artsforlearningwny.org by Friday, February 29th to reserve your spot.

Priority will be given to attendees who commit to the entire series, however, limited individual spots will be available for each session. Please indicate your level of commitment in your email.

MASTER
TEACHING
ARTIST TRAINING PROGRAM

1. Tuesday, March 19th

4:00 - 6:00

Seneca Babcock Community Center, 1168 Seneca St.

Timothy G. Zgliczynski, Ph.D: Classroom Behavior Management Part

2. Wednesday, March 27th

4:00 - 6:00

Zoom

Focus 5: Designing Lessons for Classroom Instruction

3. Wednesday, April 10th

4:00 - 6:00

Zoom

Focus 5: Planning Residencies for Students

4. Monday, April 15th

4:00 - 5:30

Seneca Babcock Community Center, 1168 Seneca St.

Dr. Kathy Doody: Accommodations and Modifications for Art Educators Part 1

5. Monday, April 22nd

4:00 - 5:30

Seneca Babcock Community Center, 1168 Seneca St.

Dr. Kathy Doody: Accommodations and Modifications for Art Educators Part 2

6. Thursday, May 9th

4:00 - 5:30

Seneca Babcock Community Center, 1168 Seneca St.

Dr. Kerry Renzoni: Demystifying the New York Learning Standards for the Arts

7. Tuesday, May 14th

4:00 - 6:00

Seneca Babcock Community Center, 1168 Seneca St.

Alyssa Strang: Integrating the Arts into Core Curriculum

8. Wednesday, May 29th

4:00 - 5:30

Seneca Babcock Community Center, 1168 Seneca St.

Credentialed TAs Sharon DuBois and Melissa Kate Miller: Healthy Collaborations Start with Well-Defined Boundaries