PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Irish Classical Theatre Company's Community Matinee is a performance with accommodations for those who would benefit from a more relaxed theatre-going experience. We encourage attendees from school groups, community centers, day habilitation programs and more to come to join us at the Andrews Theatre to be themselves and experience a live performance.

Charles Dickens' classic coming-of-age tale, adapted for the stage by Neil Bartlett, follows the story of orphan Pip as he navigates a strange and difficult childhood to become a distinguished gentleman in London with the help of an anonymous benefactor. ICTC Associate Director Chris Kelly directs an energetic ensemble led by R.J. Voltz and Lissette DeJesus in this powerful journey exploring the human experience.

Performance Date: December 7, 2022, at 10:00 AM

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

- Students will gain experience viewing a well-produced piece of theatre.
- Students will be exposed to life experiences and perspectives they have not considered or which they have not faced.
- Students will explore, via group discussion, both the crafting and execution of a piece of theatre, as well as how it resonates with their own lived experiences.

LOGISTICS/EQUIPMENT

Students must be accompanied by chaperone(s).

VOCABULARY

Abscond – to leave hurriedly and secretly, typically to avoid detection of or arrest for an unlawful action

Benefactor – a person who gives money or other help to a person or cause

Diversion – an instance of turning something aside from its course

Impending – (of an event regarded as significant) about to happen; forthcoming

Prudent – acting with or showing care and thought for the future

POST-PROGRAM ACTIVITIES & RESOURCES

Teachers may feel free to continue the conversation that is sparked during the post-show Q&A to further engage students' understanding of the work, the storytelling, and how it might resonate within their own lives and experiences.

ORGANIZATION DESCRIPTION

The Irish Classical Theatre Company (ICTC) is a performing arts theatre based in Buffalo, NY. It presents outstanding productions at The Andrews Theatre, Western New York's only true theatre-in-the-round. In this intimate setting, you're never more than 10 feet from the stage. ICTC's Mission is to present the greatest works of dramatic literature: Irish plays, both traditional and contemporary, International classics, and modern plays of exceptional merit; to produce them at the highest level of artistic excellence. To offer them to the public of Buffalo, Western New York, and Southern Ontario, and subsequently, to national and international audiences.

Arts for Learning WNY's mission is to inspire, expand learning, and strengthen our community through engagement with the arts.
