PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program begins with students understanding what bullying is, how to identify bullying, and then discusses what to do in a bullying situation. Students are taught a simple, yet powerful, 4-Step process which they quickly learn and can apply immediately in any bullying situation. There is an important section on what to do if you witness bullying and how bystanders can – and should – help! Kevin excites audiences with fun, familiar, and upbeat songs and actively engages the students for an enjoyable and memorable learning experience.
