PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This show will teach your students that to have friends you have to be a good friend! Building solid friendships is one of the most important keys in a happy and successful life. This program teaches students how to make friends, be a good friend, and how to develop lasting friendships for life. Most people are ever taught how to be a good friend. Kevin reveals a number of simple but important keys to friendship so that students may make many "friends forever"! Kevin excites audiences with fun, familiar, and upbeat songs and actively engages the students for an enjoyable and memorable learning experience.
