PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This show will get your students excited about respecting others! This show was developed by Kevin specifically for a school in the Clarence district using “ RESPECT ” as their main theme for the year and the show was a big success! The students learn important lessons on how to be respectful to everyone, not only teachers & parents, but fellow peers as well. Kevin shows students why it is important to be respectful and outlines the key ways of giving and showing respect. Kevin discusses how everything you will want in life requires getting along with other people. Learning how to give and show respect is one important key to life-long success. Kevin excites audiences with fun, familiar, and upbeat songs and actively engages the students for an enjoyable and memorable learning experience.
